

Please join us for,

Conserving Hawaii's Beaches for the 21st Century: A seminar and community discussion

Preserving Hawaii's beaches through land use policy, beach restoration, landscaping guidelines, erosion setbacks and early planning.

Presentations Include

- Threats to Hawaii's Beaches
Charles "Chip" Fletcher, Chair of the Department of Geology and Geophysics, University of Hawaii at Mānoa, Coastal Geology Group
- Hawaii's Coastal Communities: Integrating Resource Protection, Disaster Management and Community Development
India Clark, Community Resilience Coordinator, NOAA, Pacific Services Center
- Hawaii's Coastal Protection Policies and Guidelines
Dennis Hwang, Affiliate Faculty UH Sea Grant
- Hawaii's Beach Management Plans: Recent Initiatives and Implementation Challenges
Dolan Eversole, Zoe Norcross-Nu'u & Jim O'Connell, UH Sea Grant
- Hawaii's Coastal Lands Program: Beach Conservation Efforts for the Future
Sam Lemmo, Administrator, DLNR-OCCL

Island	Date	Time	Location
Kauai	Thursday Oct. 23, 2008	1:30-4:30 pm	Kauai War Memorial Convention Hall, Nihau Room, Kauai Convention Hall
Hawaii-Kona	Tuesday Oct. 28, 2008	1:30-4:30 pm	King Kamehameha Hotel, Ballroom 1
Maui	Friday Nov. 14, 2008	2:00-5:00 pm	Maui Community College, Pilina Building (formerly Student Center), Multipurpose Room
Honolulu	Thursday Nov. 20, 2008	1:00-4:00 pm	Mission Memorial Auditorium (next to Honolulu Hale)

Contact Dolan Eversole at (808) 587-0377 or dolan.eversole@hawaii.gov.
Space is open and FREE no need to RSVP.
Visit: <http://www.hawaii.gov/dlnr/occl/>